ORDER

Before the Court is the Motion, received on September 9, 2020 (doc. 6), under 28 U.S.C. § 2255, seeking to vacate, set aside, or correct sentence by a person in federal custody. On July 30, 2020, it was recommended that the movant's initial motion for an extension of the one-year statute of limitations to file a § 2255 motion be dismissed for lack of jurisdiction, unless he filed his § 2255 motion within the fourteen-day period for objecting to the recommendation, or by some other deadline set by the Court. (See doc. 3.) The movant's deadline to file his § 2255 motion was extended, and he has now filed his formal motion. Accordingly, the July 30, 2020 findings, conclusions, and recommendation, which have not yet been accepted, are hereby VACATED.

SO ORDERED this 14th day of September, 2020.
